

The current situation in modern biosemiotics

Sergey Chebanov

1. Different sources of biosemiotics.
2. Different interpretation of history and prehistory of biosemiotics.
3. Some branches of biosemiotics as closed areas.
4. Variety of understanding of a|but| subject of semiotics and plurality of its versions.
5. Anthropomorphism| and |notes|humanitarization of a|but| science.
6. Problems of biosemiotics as «fashionable|stylish|» discipline.
7. Semiotics of biology.
8. Folklore biology and biosemiotics.
9. Bio-philology|, bio-linguistics|, bio-hermeneutics, etc.

(Bio)Informatics (Bio)Semiotics signals, control, control signals, thresholds importances,meaning , triggers , communication, connection, information signs, meaning, signification one plan of existence plan of expressions and plan of content immanent  connection between the phenomena reciprocal transcendent relations between two plans
Possible phenomena	correct sensible semiot. constr.(SC) correct senseless SC   incorrect sensible SC arm  incorrect senseless SC
threshold importance,meaning  of parameter	categorization
Reconstruction	interpretation
Piercian  semiotics	Saussurian semiotics